

Down

1. A plan describing who children will live with, who will take care of them, and who will make decisions for them.
3. Specific time where children can spend time with the parent they are not living with. Also called "parenting time."

4. An adult whose job it is to listen and help people learn to feel better and understand their problems.

5. Someone who testifies in court.

7. An adult who is especially knowledgeable in a certain field, such as a counselor, special advocate, a lawyer or an accountant.

8. An expert who helps a divorcing couple discuss and settle arguments about their divorce.

Across

2. The amount of money one parent will pay to the other to help with the care of the children.

6. An adult whose job it is to help a husband or wife complete a divorce.

9. Money one spouse pays to the other to provide financial support after they are no longer together. Also called "alimony."

10. Legal judgement that permanently ends a marriage. Also called "dissolution" of marriage.

11. Either the husband or the wife.